

seats at $50 per annum—all to be under the control of the Commissioner of Agriculture.

The fourth section directs the appropriation of $1,500 as the fiscal year's expenditures in the Agricultural Bureau, that there to be established.

It hangs to my memory that I diligently over-looks the speech of Mr. PUTNAM, of your State, in my letter yesterday. It was certainly not intentional. I could not have wilfully given the go-by to so earnest and well pointed a plea for California and Freedom. Mr. PUTNAM argued successfully to show that Slavery deserved strict punishment, and that the moment it was carried beyond the pale of such law, it lost its protection. His speech showed the Southern doctrines in a clear light. He expressed himself against the Senate's Compromise. It was a log-rolling scheme, dangerous, and opposed to honest legislation. A proposition that cannot stand alone, without critics, should not be introduced at all. It incites the doctrinaires. Let us do evil that good may come. California is suffering injustice; she should be admitted and independently of the measures ad-ease and not germane with which she is now clogged. He spoke very emphatically in approval of the late President's plan, maintaining that he left the question where it should be left, to enable the people to decide for the slaves.

I think you need have no fear of Mr. PUTNAM being found wanting in the hour of Freedom's trial.

SIGMA.

Affairs at Washington—Arrival of Mr. Bates—Mr. Fillmore's Administration, &c.

Correspondence of The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, July 31.

This is pay day at the different Departments; and it is amusing to witness the wry faces and contortions, and to listen to the denunciations heaped upon Congress, by the various dependants of Government, who, with an overflowing Treasury, are turned away to the mercy of the money usurers that infest this city. Clerks, Messengers, &c., are liberally provided with a certificate that such an amount is due them, which will be paid when an appropriation therfor is made by Congress!

The Whigs are in high spirits. They meet tomorrow night to select delegates to the City Convention, to nominate candidates for the Reform Convention. The Whigs of the County met for the same purpose on Saturday. The Loco having refused to join in Union tickets, there is no alternative, but to select good Whig tickets, and elect them, if possible.

It is somewhat singular that three of the six candidates chosen by the Loco for the Eastern Convention from this city were bitter Whigs a few years since. Hon. David Stewart, Robert J. Brent and Geo. W. Sherwood, were once active laborers in the Whig cause, but having renounced their principles, their apostacy has been rewarded. The hard-fisted and "veteran Democracy" are much riled about it, and I could name a score who will not vote for either of these three on that account.

The prospect is, that about the middle of September the Civil and Diplomatic bill may get through the two branches of Congress.

The arrival of Mr. Bates will enable the President to organize his Cabinet at once, and to develop an early day thereafter the policy of his Administration. It will be strictly Conservative Whig, and adverse to the Radicalism, to which evil counsels were rapidly inclining us, and which would have shipwrecked our last hope, if much longer continued in. Upon the subject of removals, I trust the entire policy of the past Administration will be abandoned. Retaining the most obnoxious political opponents in office, and the appointment of Loco Foco and TYLER men over the claims of unquestionable Whigs, with better qualifications, would destroy the strongest and purest party upon earth. In this respect a radical change is looked for from this Whig Administration, and the expectations of the public in this respect, I have good reason for saying, will not be disappointed. I do not mean to be understood, that, as in the palmiest days of Jacksonian, an indiscriminate proscription is to be carried out, and the deserving made to suffer a common fate with the obnoxious and obnoxious. But I desire to be understood, that many changes will and ought to be made, which both the public service and the interest of the Whig party demand. Many of the most important public trusts are now held by political adversaries, who are employing the influence and the patronage of such trusts to the embarrassment and detriment of the Administration and the country. Upon every principle of justice, as well as sound policy, these places should be filled by political friends, who will endeavor to strengthen rather than destroy the Administration. And no party can succeed or be sustained that does not protect its friends, instead of fostering and cherishing its enemies. In this most important respect, Mr. FILLMORE's Administration will fully come up to the expectations of the Whig throughout the Union; and better and brighter days await us in prospective.

This reformation will be made gradually, but in the end with certainty; great care being exercised to select such persons for office as will be unexceptionable to the Country and the Whig party. The Presidents has, I think, already satisfied some of his more rash and indiscreet friends, that this course toward all sections of the Whig party, is to be a strictly conciliatory, just and impartial one; and that he will exercise that discretion and firmness in coming to results connected with the Executive patronage, that he has always been proverbial for. He will let his judgment and reason, not his personal preferences or feelings, control him in all the appointments that he may make.

Several Germans have been arrested in Baltimore within a few days on charges of having obtained money from the Government through forged land warrants. An examination was held by the District Attorney, Mr. Lee, in private, yesterday, by which we understand evidece implicated others. Until their arrest no publication of the testimony will be made. The operations have been quite extensive.

The telegraph reports the cholera slowly winding its way from the West. The announcement yesterday that several cases have occurred at Harper's Ferry, Va. 80 miles from Baltimore, has created quite a panic among the old ladies. Dysentery, diarrhea and bowel complaints are very prevalent and fatal, our physicians being kept going night and day.

A man named Jesse Brooks laid down on the Philadelphia Railroad when drunk and was run over and killed. He leaves a wife and five children.

A little girl, daughter of Mr. Kraft, Pennsylvania Avenue, yesterday picked up a cap containing spirit of wine, which her brother was using, and swallowing it at a draught, caused death in a few hours.

THE DESCENDANTS OF ROBERT BURNS.—For some time, says the Daily News, "there has been traveling in the interior of the remote island of Baracoa, and abounding among its rude people of head hunters, a young man by the name of Burns, and this young man is the grandson of Robert Burns, and 'bonny Jean.' This adventurous youth has not only been hospitably and kindly treated by the rude Indians, but a prince of the Kayan nation, the most powerful of the island, has given him one of his daughters to wife, so that the future blog rappers of Robert Burns will, in all probability, be able to enumerate among his descendants those also of a Baracoan prince. Mr. Burns has discovered mines of tinimony and coal fields in Baracoa more extensive than any in the world, out of America.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

THE TRIBUNE is now too widely known to need special elucidation. Its conductors know, and believe they are entitled, to furnish a larger amount and variety of information in a year, whether in its Daily, Semi-Weekly or Weekly issue, than can be obtained as cheap in any other form.

Their endeavor to make their Daily as equal in variety to any Dail in the world; so that of their Semi-Weekly and their Weekly at $2, which is afforded to clubs at very reduced prices. Having no other than advance subscribers, sending no papers except for cash actually paid, and favored with a subscription almost if not quite without parallel, they are enabled to incur expenses for Literary Assistance. Correspondence, Telegraphing, &c., which very few can afford. It is their aim, while the party of Progress in Europe is denied the liberty of utterance on the continent, to invite them to make The Tribune their organ of communication with the public, and thereby several of the most eminent thinkers of the Old World have been engaged as regular correspondents. This policy will be pursued until several more of the ablest orators of Political and Social Reform in Europe shall converge weekly with our readers, setting in order before them the fulnesses which the investigations of our age have been steadily maturing, but owing to which kingcraft and priestcraft there rules the utterance. We hope, at the same time, not to fall behind in the other departments of Journalism, and especially in that of Political Intelligence and Home Correspondence.

MAIL ROBBER ARRESTED.—Monday last, one Charles Emory, who has resided in this city about four months, was arrested near Springfield, Ill., in the act of stealing luxury packages from the mail bags upon the Eastern stage. The particulars of the arrest have not yet been made known in this city, but sufficient is ascertained to justify the conclusion that Emory has been engaged in robbing the mail at some time past. Information of his arrest and residence in this city having been communicated to Marshal Tamm, that officer immediately proceeded to a house in Fourth st between Locust and Olive, occupied by a woman representing herself as the wife of Emory, and searched the premises. In a trunk, which was said to belong to Emory, was found a bond from the city of Galena to the Phoenix Insurance Company for $100, and a letter, inclosing the same, to John H. Gauden, of this city. Also, the halves of sundry bank bills, which, no doubt, have been melted, and used by the robber, from the fact that he never succeeded in securing the remaining portion. The woman of the house, who gave her name as Bridget A. Emory, was arrested and lodged in jail, as a witness against her reputed husband. She states that, until within four months past, Emory and herself have been traveling through Illinois on pleasure; but further than this makes no disclosure. She will be taken to Illinois as a witness.

A SLAVE LOST.—Quite a commotion was caused on Thursday, at the Manganah House, by the springing away, through some mysterious agency, of a girl, described as a mulatto, with part Indian blood. Age 14 or 15, in whom Mr. John Drennan, of Van Buren, Ark., brother of our excellent old friend, Ald. D claimed property as a slave.—The girl had taken with her a trunk belonging to Mr. D and he offered a reward of $100 for the girl and $15 for the trunk. The trunk, it appears, had been taken in mistake for one which the girl claimed as hers, and officer Hague succeeded in recovering that article, but owing to a peculiar visual organization was unable to see anything of the piece of human property. The trunk was delivered at the Manganah House, after Mr. Drennan left the city—but will be forwarded to him. A waiter in the Hotel, who was suspected of having decoyed the girl, though since he was believed to have been engaged in that nefarious business, was discharged by Mr. Crossan. The girl disappeared while the family were at dinner. See Dispatch.

TERMS.—DAILY TRIBUNE, (Sundays excepted) the choice of three editions per day for $5 per annum, or $3 per month. SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE (every Wednesday and Saturday) same size as the Daily, $5 per annum, or $3 for two copies. WEEKLY TRIBUNE, a double-medium sheet, eight large pages of six columns each, $2 per annum, three copies for $8, eight copies for $10, or twenty copies to one address for $20. Payment in advance, and the paper stopped when the term of payment shall have expired. Bills of all lawfully constituted specie—paying Banks received at certified. Remittances at our mailing room shown to and certified by the Postmaster at our risk. We send our Weekly to all clergymen at $1 per annum—Subscriptions solicited.

GREELEY & MCILRATH 104 Nassau-st.

New-York, Sept. 16, 1840.

Pittsburgh Dispatch.

SEASIDE—Military Instruction in Schools—Less by Encyclopedias—Slaves Abandoning—Senator Pratt—Land Warrant Forgery—Cholera Coming—Sickness—Accidents.

Correspondence of The Tribune.

BALTIMORE, Wednesday, July 31.

A great contest has been going on for several days past between the Loco Foco in reference to the selection of delegates to the Convention to nominate a candidate for Mayor. The struggle has been between the friends of Mayor J. W. Watkins and J. M. Turner—the latter having, it is pretty clearly ascertained, secured a majority in the Convention. The Ward meetings were highly exciting, and resulted in several instances in an appeal to arms, in which brawny fists, table legs and chair rounds, figured very conspicuously—Broken noses and cracked heads were numerous. In one of the rows yesterday, Sidor N. Donaldson, a member of the Legislature, figured, and was arrested and held to answer at Court. Turner is a butcher, still following his vocation, and has spent about $2,000 already in pouring whisky down the throats of the Loco's, as an argument (a powerful one by the way) to induce them to vote for him. Watkins is a braggart, rather than of the "ready," and consequently has been rather too slim of friends, although he has run Turner to the girdle and will give him a deal of trouble in the Nominating Convention, which meets on to-morrow (Thursday) evening at Democratic Hall. Every body here expects a grand row at the Convention, and I have no doubt that everybody will be gratified. If Turner is nominated, which I think certain, no temperance man will touch him, and any good Whig can be elected.

The Whigs are in high spirits. They meet tomorrow night to select delegates to the City Convention, to nominate candidates for the Reform Convention. The Whigs of the County met for the same purpose on Saturday. The Loco having refused to join in Union tickets, there is no alternative, but to select good Whig tickets, and elect them, if possible.

It is somewhat singular that three of the six candidates chosen by the Loco for the Eastern Convention from this city were bitter Whigs a few years since. Hon. David Stewart, Robert J. Brent and Geo. W. Sherwood, were once active laborers in the Whig cause, but having renounced their principles, their apostacy has been rewarded. The hard-fisted and "veteran Democracy" are much riled about it, and I could name a score who will not vote for either of these three on that account.

The prospect is, that about the middle of September the Civil and Diplomatic bill may get through the two branches of Congress.

The arrival of Mr. Bates will enable the President to organize his Cabinet at once, and to develop an early day thereafter the policy of his Administration. It will be strictly Conservative Whig, and adverse to the Radicalism, to which evil counsels were rapidly inclining us, and which would have shipwrecked our last hope, if much longer continued in. Upon the subject of removals, I trust the entire policy of the past Administration will be abandoned. Retaining the most obnoxious political opponents in office, and the appointment of Loco Foco and TYLER men over the claims of unquestionable Whigs, with better qualifications, would destroy the strongest and purest party upon earth. In this respect a radical change is looked for from this Whig Administration, and the expectations of the public in this respect, I have good reason for saying, will not be disappointed. I do not mean to be understood, that, as in the palmiest days of Jacksonian, an indiscriminate proscription is to be carried out, and the deserving made to suffer a common fate with the obnoxious and obnoxious. But I desire to be understood, that many changes will and ought to be made, which both the public service and the interest of the Whig party demand. Many of the most important public trusts are now held by political adversaries, who are employing the influence and the patronage of such trusts to the embarrassment and detriment of the Administration and the country. Upon every principle of justice, as well as sound policy, these places should be filled by political friends, who will endeavor to strengthen rather than destroy the Administration. And no party can succeed or be sustained that does not protect its friends, instead of fostering and cherishing its enemies. In this most important respect, Mr. FILLMORE's Administration will fully come up to the expectations of the Whig throughout the Union; and better and brighter days await us in prospective.

This reformation will be made gradually, but in the end with certainty; great care being exercised to select such persons for office as will be unexceptionable to the Country and the Whig party. The Presidents has, I think, already satisfied some of his more rash and indiscreet friends, that this course toward all sections of the Whig party, is to be a strictly conciliatory, just and impartial one; and that he will exercise that discretion and firmness in coming to results connected with the Executive patronage, that he has always been proverbial for. He will let his judgment and reason, not his personal preferences or feelings, control him in all the appointments that he may make.

Several Germans have been arrested in Baltimore within a few days on charges of having obtained money from the Government through forged land warrants. An examination was held by the District Attorney, Mr. Lee, in private, yesterday, by which we understand evidece implicated others. Until their arrest no publication of the testimony will be made. The operations have been quite extensive.

The telegraph reports the cholera slowly winding its way from the West. The announcement yesterday that several cases have occurred at Harper's Ferry, Va. 80 miles from Baltimore, has created quite a panic among the old ladies. Dysentery, diarrhea and bowel complaints are very prevalent and fatal, our physicians being kept going night and day.

A man named Jesse Brooks laid down on the Philadelphia Railroad when drunk and was run over and killed. He leaves a wife and five children.

A little girl, daughter of Mr. Kraft, Pennsylvania Avenue, yesterday picked up a cap containing spirit of wine, which her brother was using, and swallowing it at a draught, caused death in a few hours.

THE DESCENDANTS OF ROBERT BURNS.—For some time, says the Daily News, "there has been traveling in the interior of the remote island of Baracoa, and abounding among its rude people of head hunters, a young man by the name of Burns, and this young man is the grandson of Robert Burns, and 'bonny Jean.' This adventurous youth has not only been hospitably and kindly treated by the rude Indians, but a prince of the Kayan nation, the most powerful of the island, has given him one of his daughters to wife, so that the future blog rappers of Robert Burns will, in all probability, be able to enumerate among his descendants those also of a Baracoan prince. Mr. Burns has discovered mines of tinimony and coal fields in Baracoa more extensive than any in the world, out of America.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

THE TRIBUNE is now too widely known to need special elucidation. Its conductors know, and believe they are entitled, to furnish a larger amount and variety of information in a year, whether in its Daily, Semi-Weekly or Weekly issue, than can be obtained as cheap in any other form.

Their endeavor to make their Daily as equal in variety to any Dail in the world; so that of their Semi-Weekly and their Weekly at $2, which is afforded to clubs at very reduced prices. Having no other than advance subscribers, sending no papers except for cash actually paid, and favored with a subscription almost if not quite without parallel, they are enabled to incur expenses for Literary Assistance. Correspondence, Telegraphing, &c., which very few can afford. It is their aim, while the party of Progress in Europe is denied the liberty of utterance on the continent, to invite them to make The Tribune their organ of communication with the public, and thereby several of the most eminent thinkers of the Old World have been engaged as regular correspondents. This policy will be pursued until several more of the ablest orators of Political and Social Reform in Europe shall converge weekly with our readers, setting in order before them the fulnesses which the investigations of our age have been steadily maturing, but owing to which kingcraft and priestcraft there rules the utterance. We hope, at the same time, not to fall behind in the other departments of Journalism, and especially in that of Political Intelligence and Home Correspondence.

MAIL ROBBER ARRESTED.—Monday last, one Charles Emory, who has resided in this city about four months, was arrested near Springfield, Ill., in the act of stealing luxury packages from the mail bags upon the Eastern stage. The particulars of the arrest have not yet been made known in this city, but sufficient is ascertained to justify the conclusion that Emory has been engaged in robbing the mail at some time past. Information of his arrest and residence in this city having been communicated to Marshal Tamm, that officer immediately proceeded to a house in Fourth st between Locust and Olive, occupied by a woman representing herself as the wife of Emory, and searched the premises. In a trunk, which was said to belong to Emory, was found a bond from the city of Galena to the Phoenix Insurance Company for $100, and a letter, inclosing the same, to John H. Gauden, of this city. Also, the halves of sundry bank bills, which, no doubt, have been melted, and used by the robber, from the fact that he never succeeded in securing the remaining portion. The woman of the house, who gave her name as Bridget A. Emory, was arrested and lodged in jail, as a witness against her reputed husband. She states that, until within four months past, Emory and herself have been traveling through Illinois on pleasure; but further than this makes no disclosure. She will be taken to Illinois as a witness.

A SLAVE LOST.—Quite a commotion was caused on Thursday, at the Manganah House, by the springing away, through some mysterious agency, of a girl, described as a mulatto, with part Indian blood. Age 14 or 15, in whom Mr. John Drennan, of Van Buren, Ark., brother of our excellent old friend, Ald. D claimed property as a slave.—The girl had taken with her a trunk belonging to Mr. D and he offered a reward of $100 for the girl and $15 for the trunk. The trunk, it appears, had been taken in mistake for one which the girl claimed as hers, and officer Hague succeeded in recovering that article, but owing to a peculiar visual organization was unable to see anything of the piece of human property. The trunk was delivered at the Manganah House, after Mr. Drennan left the city—but will be forwarded to him. A waiter in the Hotel, who was suspected of having decoyed the girl, though since he was believed to have been engaged in that nefarious business, was discharged by Mr. Crossan. The girl disappeared while the family were at dinner. See Dispatch.

SEASIDE—Military Instruction in Schools—Less by Encyclopedias—Slaves Abandoning—Senator Pratt—Land Warrant Forgery—Cholera Coming—Sickness—Accidents.

Correspondence of The Tribune.

BALTIMORE, Wednesday, July 31.

A great contest has been going on for several days past between the Loco Foco in reference to the selection of delegates to the Convention to nominate a candidate for Mayor. The struggle has been between the friends of Mayor J. W. Watkins and J. M. Turner—the latter having, it is pretty clearly ascertained, secured a majority in the Convention. The Ward meetings were highly exciting, and resulted in several instances in an appeal to arms, in which brawny fists, table legs and chair rounds, figured very conspicuously—Broken noses and cracked heads were numerous. In one of the rows yesterday, Sidor N. Donaldson, a member of the Legislature, figured, and was arrested and held to answer at Court. Turner is a butcher, still following his vocation, and has spent about $2,000 already in pouring whisky down the throats of the Loco's, as an argument (a powerful one by the way) to induce them to vote for him. Watkins is a braggart, rather than of the "ready," and consequently has been rather too slim of friends, although he has run Turner to the girdle and will give him a deal of trouble in the Nominating Convention, which meets on to-morrow (Thursday) evening at Democratic Hall. Every body here expects a grand row at the Convention, and I have no doubt that everybody will be gratified. If Turner is nominated, which I think certain, no temperance man will touch him, and any good Whig can be elected.

The Whigs are in high spirits. They meet tomorrow night to select delegates to the City Convention, to nominate candidates for the Reform Convention. The Whigs of the County met for the same purpose on Saturday. The Loco having refused to join in Union tickets, there is no alternative, but to select good Whig tickets, and elect them, if possible.

It is somewhat singular that three of the six candidates chosen by the Loco for the Eastern Convention from this city were bitter Whigs a few years since. Hon. David Stewart, Robert J. Brent and Geo. W. Sherwood, were once active laborers in the Whig cause, but having renounced their principles, their apostacy has been rewarded. The hard-fisted and "veteran Democracy" are much riled about it, and I could name a score who will not vote for either of these three on that account.

The prospect is, that about the middle of September the Civil and Diplomatic bill may get through the two branches of Congress.

The arrival of Mr. Bates will enable the President to organize his Cabinet at once, and to develop an early day thereafter the policy of his Administration. It will be strictly Conservative Whig, and adverse to the Radicalism, to which evil counsels were rapidly inclining us, and which would have shipwrecked our last hope, if much longer continued in. Upon the subject of removals, I trust the entire policy of the past Administration will be abandoned. Retaining the most obnoxious political opponents in office, and the appointment of Loco Foco and TYLER men over the claims of unquestionable Whigs, with better qualifications, would destroy the strongest and purest party upon earth. In this respect a radical change is looked for from this Whig Administration, and the expectations of the public in this respect, I have good reason for saying, will not be disappointed. I do not mean to be understood, that, as in the palmiest days of Jacksonian, an indiscriminate proscription is to be carried out, and the deserving made to suffer a common